

Classroom design : One table and different individual spaces

The individual desk has pictures for the agenda of the day at Videskolan. In the middle of the classroom there is a big table where the morning assembly always takes part. After that, each student work either at their own desk or if it suits the task the work can also be done at the big table in the middle of the classroom.

Keywords: Individual agenda, picture support.