

Passport Template

The ‘passport’ is used for children who are making transitions to a new year group (change of teacher) or a new school. The passport includes important information about the child to allow for a smoother transition. If the child is able, they can fill out the passport themselves, otherwise the teacher/teaching assistant can do so with the best of their knowledge.

Keywords: Autism, transitions, passport

Please see additional example named ‘Passport Template’